^g Criminal dispositions reported by charges so total disposed reported was divided by the historical statewide court average of 1.5 charges per defendant so more appropriate comparisons can be made at the case level.

There were 4,675 non-traffic cases filed in the Ninth Judicial District during fiscal year 2014. Of those, 52 percent were criminal cases, more than 29 percent were civil cases, 17 percent were family cases, and more than 1 percent were juvenile cases. There were 4,027 non-traffic cases disposed during the fiscal year. The Ninth Judicial District also reported 9,784 filings and 8,179 dispositions for traffic and parking cases.

The standard measure of court performance is the clearance rate, which is calculated by dividing the number of dispositions by the number of filings and multiplying by 100. Courts aspire to dispose of at least as many cases as have been filed and achieve a clearance rate of 100 percent or higher. The clearance rate for non-traffic cases in the Ninth Judicial District was 86 percent. The clearance rate for traffic cases was 84 percent.

The five-year trends for total non-traffic filings and dispositions in the Ninth Judicial District's courts are shown in the chart below.
